

Coins for our Custodians

ACM has three wonderful custodians who have the tough job of keeping our school clean and safe!

During the month of November, we are collecting coins for our custodians. The money collected will be used to buy holiday gift cards for Mr. John, and our two night custodians.

The jars will be in the office. The grade level that collects the most money will earn a hot chocolate party and an extra recess!